FREE SCHOOL MEALS ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

In England, children are eligible to receive free school meals (FSM) if their parents are in receipt of any of the following benefits:

- Income Support
- Income-based Job Seekers' Allowance
- Income-related Employment and Support Allowance
- Support under Part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
- the Guaranteed element of State Pension Credit
- Child Tax Credit, provided they are not also entitled to Working Tax Credit and have an annual gross income of no more than £16,190, as assessed by Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs.

If you have stated that you are eligible for Free School Meals you will be required to bring proof of eligibility when accepting the place at the school. The following documents are acceptable proof:

- A letter from the benefits agency or Job Centre dated within the last eight weeks, or
- Your most recent form TC602 from the Inland Revenue showing your tax credit award.
- Pension Credit M1000 Award Notice showing how your pension credit has been worked out.
- Home Office document confirming asylum seeker status.

If you have misplaced your TC602 form you should telephone the Inland Revenue helpdesk on 0845 300 3900 who will send out a replacement.
